Plymouth branch talk - EDI: Why is Inclusion Important in the Workplace?

16 July, 5:30-7:00pm

Online via MS Teams

Discrimination is not acceptable in any setting, including the workplace. Head of Equality, Diversity and Inclusion at University Hospitals Plymouth Jenny Birchall will give a talk about inclusion in health care workplaces, including in the independent sector, GP practices and the NHS. She'll cover equity, diversity and inclusion (EDI), workforce standards and how to improve civility, kindness and inclusion in the workplace. Book to receive your joining link. We're also holding an EDI awareness stand at Derriford Hospital that day between 11.30am and 2pm on the main concourse, L6, . Come and say hello.
