Welcome to the RCN Scotland Nurse of the Year Awards 2025

Following on from the success of our awards in 2024, the Royal College of Nursing in Scotland is delighted to be holding our next Nurse of the Year Awards on 12 June 2025.

The awards are designed to raise the profile of nursing, to recognise, highlight, and celebrate the dedication and outstanding professional care of nursing staff across Scotland.

The RCN Scotland Nurse of the Year Awards ceremony is a fantastic evening celebrating our nursing, midwifery, and health and care colleagues, promoting the achievements of all of our finalists and commending the contribution that nursing makes to the health and wellbeing of the people of Scotland.

Without sponsorship, this important event would not be able to take place.

Why sponsor the RCN Scotland Nurse of the Year Awards?

Sponsoring the RCN Scotland Nurse of the Year Awards is a wonderful opportunity to recognise and celebrate the role that nursing plays in the health and wellbeing of our country.

The Awards provide sponsors with the opportunity to connect and develop lasting relationships with today's and future nursing leaders and discover the diversity of the profession.

The Royal College of Nursing is the world's largest nursing union and professional body. We represent over half a million nurses, midwives and nursing support workers across the UK and internationally, with over 49,500 members in Scotland. We are offering you the opportunity to promote your organisation to our members and to be associated with these esteemed awards.

The nomination process for the 2025 Awards is due to be launched in October 2024, and now is the time to get involved.
